To Whom It May Concern:

I writing to express my interest in applying for the position of Software Engineer. Implementing the programming fundamentals I learned while studying at UC Berkeley in a variety of fields, from neuroscience research to the SCUBA diving industry, has given me hands on experience that will make me an asset to your company.

My experience and qualifications are in line with the requirements you have listed for this position. I have developed web applications using .NET framework, VB.NET, C#, HTML, JavaScript, and SQL with Object Oriented Programming pinciples in mind. I have also collaborated with others to developed data management systems and web apps that maximized ease of use, effciency, and functionality.

I find fulfillment in being challenged, in learning new ways to design intuitive, user friendly applications, and in sharing my knowledge to others. I am eager to bring the same drive and propensity for learning that has allowed me to work successfully in a variety of fields to your company.

Thank you for your consideration.I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
Adriana Guerra
